GLOBE BAKERY HAS MOVED TO SEELIG MARKET

Growing Concern Has Rented Front Space To Display Wares

(From Lomita News Letter)

One of the most important business changes affecting the buying public was made Tuesday when the Globe Bakery announced the removal of their retail store from the Lomita Meat Market to the Sam Seelig store No. 47, near the State Bank of Lomita. This information came as a distinct surprise to buyers of the "Staff of Life", and before the News Letter came out with the announcement many customers continued to call at the old stand for their bread and pastries.

The left-hand corner space in front has been reserved by the bakery in the Seelig store and from this date on Mr. Campbell, manager of Seelig's will discontinue the handling of bread. The Globe Bakery has enjoyed a wonderful success the past three years and came here when Lomita and vicinity had to depend upon Los Angeles for their bread. Baking a better loaf, and giving service that serves, Mr. and Mrs. Groves have built up a substantial business and employ a number of experienced helpers in order to turn out the goods. They have a store and bakery in Torrance which is run entirely independent of the Lomita Bakery, both concerns demanding constant attention of the proprietors.

Fiesta Committee To Police City During Fair Week

Members of the Fiesta Committee appeared before the City Council last evening at the regular meeting and among other topics that came before the Board the committee asked for extra police protection during the week of the Fiesta, the added expense to be borne by the Fiesta Committee.

The city marshal was directed to secure five men to act as special police during the week, two men to patrol the north part of the city, 2 the south part and one for Vista Highlands district.

Moral—If you forget or lose your latch key, don't try to crawl into your own window, you might get a bullet through you.

The Rev. J. L. Corley, D.D., representing the Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal church, was in Torrance Tuesday evening of the week conferring with members of the Sunday school board of the First M. E. church.

SERMONETTES

(By N. W. Philbrook)

A square deal is more pleasing to God than a big donation.

Transgression of God's law stamps itself on all departments of a man's nature.

It is wise to live a better testimony than one preaches.

"His commandments are not grievous." It's the good and pure and safe things God asks us to do.

If there is anything in the world which should be considered with a clear head, an unbiased mind and an honest heart it is our relation to God and eternal life.

The demand of the gospel is unconditional that a man live a pure life, that he be an honest man.

The popular religion is the one which leaves open the door for a compromise when righteousness is likely to cost too much.

Instead of being a living reality with whom they may have vital contact, God is to multitudes only a name—a part of an unreal religious system; a vague, indefinite theory.

A knowledge of the inner or vital Scriptures—the message of God to us personally—is a gift of God, but, like His other gifts, it is conditional.

It is not the dry bones of a medieval theology we are dealing with, but the living God who is speaking to us directly and personally out of the Scriptures by the word of Jesus Christ.

"ACROSS THE CONTINENT"

Whizzing, sizzling, whirling, Speeding o'er field, dale and stream, Surmounting the hills, And jammed full of thrills, To the gaining of youth's sweetest dream. Such is the tone of this picture. A cyclone of speed from the start, The world's greatest race, At a breath-taking pace, And the prize at the end—just a heart. The car that wins out is a 'flivver', The auto all folks can afford, Though the story devised, It be slightly disguised, And its name is a Dent—not a Ford. Through state after state racing grimly, From New York bang out to the Coast, Wallace Reid at the wheel Will sure make you feel Every thrill—and of them there's a host. Torrance Theatre, Saturday, August 12, only.

THE ISLE OF ZORDA

Remember—"Twenty thousand leagues under the sea?" Remember—"Around the world in Eighty days?" Here is another masterpiece with all the adventure, thrill, romance and color that makes Jules Verne so alluring. See this photoplay! See Monte Carlo! See the harem beauties! ? The Isle of Zorda will entrance you! Coming—Torrance Theatre Aug. 13-14, Thursday and Friday.

GOING STRAIGHT

Do you recall when Mary Pickford was breaking in films? It's a long time past, but you can see just how she looked and acted then when "Going Straight," a Universal revival picture, is shown at the Torrance Theatre, Sunday and Monday, August 13 and 14. The two-reel feature of that time is going to give you a hearty laugh. It is a distinct novelty.
